

BE A PART OF THE SPORTS CLUB TRADITION

The Sports Club, founded by a group of sports-loving civic-minded men with major leadership from George and Leonard Levy, wanted to see young boys and girls have the opportunity to participate and excel in sports. The Club held the Annual Sports Awards Banquet for fifty years which featured speakers such as Paul “Bear” Bryant, Brooks Robinson, Jessie Owens and more recently Stuart Steinberg. Athletes representing little leagues, high schools, and colleges were honored along with professional athletes at each year’s banquet. Eighty-four men and woman have been inducted into the Tampa Sports Hall of Fame, including Al Lopez, Babe Didrickson Zaharias, Lee Roy Selmon and Derrick Brooks.

The Sports Club of Tampa Bay has enjoyed a glorious history and moves forward with a new energy to support the participation of youth in the Tampa Bay Community in Sports.

The Sports Club Of Tampa Bay

HISTORY & PURPOSE: The Sports Club of Tampa Bay consists of men and women dedicated to the participation of youth in sports. During its Fifty-Year History, the Sports Club has played a major role in the development of youth sports for boys and girls and for the acquisition of professional sports teams in the Tampa Bay Community. Through past Annual Sports Award Banquets, the Club has raised and contributed hundreds of thousands of dollars to assist Tampa Bay Area teams in sports endeavors, especially the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa.

TAMPA SPORTS CLUB

FOUNDATION: The Sports Club Foundation, which is the funding arm of the club, entertains written requests for funding for amateur athletes and teams. The foundation has given over $1 million to local youth teams and competitors who have qualified for state, regional and national championships. Support is generally focused on helping defray travel costs to the sites of competition.

MEMBERSHIP

Privileges of membership are attendance at all club functions which include dinner meetings with featured speakers and group outings to sporting events. Dinner meetings are held twice a month from September through May in a private room of a selected restaurant. Speakers are well-known local or national athletes, coaches, athletic directors, trainers, team owners and sports radio and television personalities.

Members pay for meals for themselves and their guests at each dinner meeting.

Club Members also attend selected sporting events and pay a group rate reduced price for their tickets and for those of their guests. Active Membership requires a dues payment at the beginning of each year which is used for operating expenses of the club and for the ongoing support of youth sports in the community.
